Providing flexible, contemporary and competitively priced rooms, the Oakwood Centre is positioned within the beautiful surroundings of Woodford Park, in the heart of Woodley. The attractive and modern building provides a flexible venue to host business meetings, training and events, tailored to your specific requirements and budget.

The ideal space for your business

The modern centre offers bespoke packages for businesses for up to 150 people in its flexible function rooms, whether you are looking for a space to host meetings or classes, seminars, conferences or training away from your office.

Windows occupy one entire wall in each room, offering views over Woodford Park. All rooms are decorated in neutral tones, with a choice of 6 meeting rooms, 4 of which are interconnecting, plus a small interview room for one-to-one sessions and a theatre for more formal presentations and productions.

Our professional team will work with you to ensure your event runs smoothly, configuring the venue to suit your requirements. With no need for you to set up or clear down, you are free to focus on your event and business.
